In the Matter of: Si Mong Park, 10386 East Painted Turtle Lane; Tucson, AZ 85747;

Order Denying Export Privileges

On September 14, 2020, in the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia, Si Mong Park (“Park”) was convicted of violating Section 38 of the Arms Export Control Act (22 U.S.C § 2778) (“AECA”). Specifically, Park was convicted of knowingly and willfully exporting and causing to be exported from the United States to South Korea, defense articles, that is, technical data related to launch vehicles, guided missiles, ballistic missiles, rockets, torpedoes, bombs and mines, and technical data related to enumerated aircraft and aircraft related articles, which are all designated as defense articles on the United States Munitions List, without having first obtained from the Department of State a license for such export or written authorization for such export. Park was sentenced to 21 months in prison, 36 months of supervised release and a $100 assessment.

Pursuant to Section 1760(e) of the Export Control Reform Act (“ECRA”),¹ the export privileges of any person who has been convicted of certain offenses, including, but not limited to, Section 38 of the AECA, may be denied for a period of up to ten (10) years from the date of his/her conviction. 50 U.S.C. § 4819(e) (Prior Convictions). In addition, any Bureau of Industry and Security (“BIS”) licenses or other authorizations issued under ECRA, in which the person had an interest at the time of the conviction, may be revoked. Id.

BIS received notice of Park's conviction for violating Section 38 of the AECA, and has provided notice and opportunity for Park to make a written submission to BIS, as provided in Section 766.25 of the Export Administration Regulations ("EAR" or the "Regulations"). 15 C.F.R. § 766.25.² BIS has not received a written submission from Park.

Based upon my review of the record and consultations with BIS's Office of Exporter Services, including its Director, and the facts available to BIS, I have decided to deny Park's export privileges under the Regulations for a period of seven years from the date of Park's conviction. The Office of Exporter Services has also decided to revoke any BIS-issued licenses in which Park had an interest at the time of his conviction.³

Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED:
